

6516209020.txt

I am a XM Subscriber and I enjoy XM Radio greatly. I do not see how the big broadcasting companies should be able to limit someone on what they can choose to listen too or watch. We the people should have that right!! Their argument is all based on their lost revenue, is that a basis to limit what someone can listen too. I as an American Citizen and tax payer should decide what I want to listen to especially when I am the one paying for it.